

This week...

James and Wakana are going out for dinner for the first time after getting married.

Lesson Targets

- Ordering food at a restaurant
- Deciding what to eat and drink

Daily English Conversation

Super Class

Warm Up – Topic Question

Do you have a favorite restaurant you like to go to?

Picture Description

What is the problem with the food?

A

B

C

* Choose the most appropriate meaning of the word from the four options.

1. feast

- snack
- abstain
- banquet
- delight

4. tasty

- bland
- delectable
- tasteless
- tedious

2. beverage

- refreshment
- brunch
- supper
- gourmet

5. ingredients

- integral
- amassed
- heaped
- component

3. buffet

- light meal
- lunch
- smorgasbord
- connoisseur

6. bistro

- tavern
- fast food
- store
- bill

Wakana	James, we are now a married couple and I couldn't be happier.
James	Me either, Wakana. The wedding ceremony went off without a hitch , but I'm glad that is behind us now.
Wakana	This is the first time we have been out for dinner since we have been married, so let's order something special.
James	I have been looking at the menu for 20 minutes now, but unfortunately I can't read anything on it.
Wakana	That's right. It is all in Japanese. Sorry about that. I was just enjoying the moment of being out with you.
James	I want to eat a beef dish if they have it.
Wakana	How about sukiyaki? It is supposed to be really tasty at this restaurant.
James	Sounds good, but next time let's go to a restaurant which has pictures on the menu.

Role Play – At the Restaurant

Student A and Student B are at a restaurant. They are deciding what to order from a menu.

Key Phrases

- It's so nice to come out to dinner with you tonight.
- Have you decided what you want to order?
- I think I am going to order ....
- The .... looks good.
- Do you want something to drink?
- Other

- How often do you eat out at a restaurant?
- Where do you usually go when you eat out?
- Would you send a dish back if it did not taste good?
- Does your area have a good variety of foreign restaurants?

Eating out more than three nights a week is very unhealthy.

A

Agree

B

Disagree

American Slang

- go ballistic – to lose control; go crazy
The customer went ballistic when he found a cockroach in his soup.
  - snazzy – stylish and attractive
This restaurant is really snazzy.
-

Australian Slang

- booze – alcoholic drink
Can you bring a couple of bottles of booze to the party?
  - exxy – expensive
That new French restaurant that just opened is a bit exxy.
-

British Slang

- bevvvy – an alcoholic drink
Let's go to the pub this evening for a bevvvy.
- stuffed – having eaten enough or too much
I can't believe how much I ate at the restaurant. I'm completely stuffed!