

This week...

Scott has just been shopping to buy a new jacket. It is completely different from the kind of fashion that he usually wears so Tina is asking him about it.

Lesson Targets

- Discussing fashion tastes
- Planning to go clothes shopping

Daily English Conversation

Super Class

Warm Up – Topic Question

Do you have a favourite outfit?

Picture Description

What does he think about that item of clothing?

A

C

B

* Choose the most appropriate meaning of the word from the four options.

1. bargain

- steal
- rip-off
- barter
- swizz

2. outlandish

- bland
- pedestrian
- mundane
- eccentric

3. fashionable

- outmoded
- in
- square
- homely

4. lift

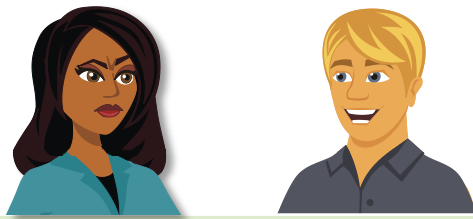

- dampen
- splurge
- hoist
- deaden

5. mood

- bliss
- satellite
- temper
- oinked

6. similar

- alike
- divergent
- at odds
- incomparable

Tina	Oh my gosh, Scott! What on earth are you wearing?
Scott	You mean my new jacket? I got it half price at a bargain sale at the department store. Don't you like it?
Tina	I have never seen you wear anything like that before. It is a bit outlandish!
Scott	I thought changing the kind of clothes I wear might perk me up a bit.
Tina	I prefer the way you usually look, but each to his own I guess.
Scott	How about we go back to the store? You might find a few good bargains of your own!
Tina	I could do with a new dress and a new designer pair of jeans.
Scott	I did see that the ladies wear section was having a big sale. You might be able to find a similar jacket to mine!
Tina	No thanks!

Role Play – Fashion

Student A plans to buy some new clothes, and invites Student B to go clothes shopping. They discuss garments and styles.

Key Phrases

- It's about time I got some new
- Are there any particular brands that you like?
- Let's try to find something on sale.
- My wardrobe needs a bit of sprucing up.
- I really like the designer
- I could do with
- I want to get a real statement piece.
- Other

Clothing

- designer jeans
- business suit
- dress
- skirt
- kimono
- sportswear
- other

- Are you loyal to any clothing brands or designers?
- What's the most unusual garment you own?
- Who's the most fashionable person you know?

Ask the Teacher

- Do you have a favorite outfit?
- Are you loyal to any clothing brands or designers?
- (Ask a different question related to the topic)

Fashion is harmful to society.

A

Agree

B

Disagree