

This week...

Wakana is considering going back to school to study English literature. She is talking to James about it.

Lesson Targets

- Going back to school
- Deciding what to study

Daily English Conversation

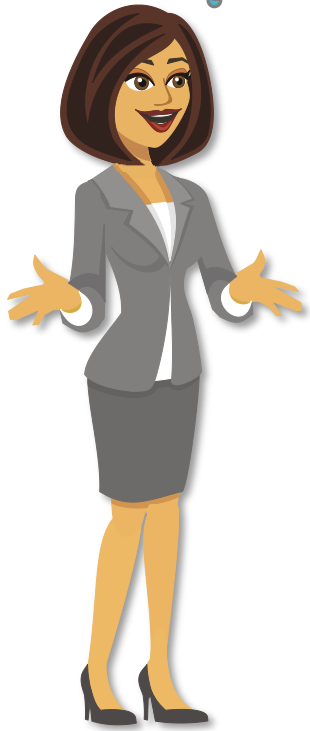

Basic Class

Warm Up – Topic Question

What subject would you like to study?

What are they all studying?

A

B

What are they talking about?

*Create a short story using the following format

1. Who
2. Where
3. When
4. What's happening?

*Create a simple sentence using these words.

1. education
2. subject
3. decide
4. support

I'm not sure what subject I should decide to study.

1. I've been thinking about studying French.
2. The university offers courses in the evenings.
3. I was thinking of taking calligraphy classes.
4. I want to learn more about Japanese history.

- Words
- Phrases

Wakana I've been thinking about going back to school.

James Really?

Wakana Yes. I want to further my education.

James How are you going to go to work and school at the same time?

Wakana The university offers night classes, so I was thinking of taking them four nights a week.

James What are you going to study?

Wakana I want to learn more about English literature.

James That's a tough subject! Of course if you decide to do it, I'll support you 100%.

Wakana Thanks, James.

Let's create sentences using your own words!

1. I've been thinking about
2. The university offers
3. I was thinking of taking
4. I want to learn more about

1. Who will take care of your kids while you study?

- A: My sister said she'll will.
- B: I will have to hired a nanny.
- C: My husband is going to.

2. Are you passionate about that subject?

- A: Of course, I love reading.
- B: Yes, I'd always have been.
- C: Yes, I wish I had studied it the first time I go to college.

3. When will your course start?

- A: It begins November 3th.
- B: It begins in September.
- C: It starts sometime in a summer, I need to check.

4. Have you ever thought about going back to school?

- A: No, but I'd like to maybe.
- B: To tell a truth, not really.
- C: Well, now that you mention its, I'm thinking about it.

Role Play – Education

Student A is thinking about going back to school and is talking about why he/she wants to. Student B is asking some questions about it.

A: I've been thinking of going back to school.

B: Why do you want to do that?

Continue the conversation using Subjects and the Key Phrases from below.

Key Phrases

- I want to further my education.
- I really want to study
- I want to learn more about
- What are you going to study?
- That's a tough subject.
- Good luck with that!
- Other

Subjects

- English literature
- Law
- Medicine
- Accounting
- Marketing
- Physical therapy
- Other

- Do you take any courses besides online English?
- Do you enjoy learning new things?

- Is there a subject at university that you would like to study?
- Have you ever taken a night course or an online course?

- course 講座 - The course they offer seems interesting.
- decide 決定する - I haven't decided yet.
- education 教育 - I think education is very important.
- learn 学習する - That's a good way to learn English.
- offers 提供する - The school offers evening classes.
- subject 教科 - That is a difficult subject to study.
- support 支援 - If you want to do it, you have my support.