

How do you like to spend time with your friends?

Daily English Conversation

Advanced Class

Tell a Story

How Important are Friends?

Some people say that people place too much importance on friends and that they are not so important compared to family and work. What do you think?

Vocabulary

- |                |             |
|----------------|-------------|
| 1. asset       | 5. helpful  |
| 2. concentrate | 6. advise   |
| 3. rely        | 7. valuable |
| 4. celebrate   | 8. inspire  |

Scenario 1:

Student A and Student B are talking about one of their mutual friends and the experiences they've shared with them.

Scenario 2:

Student A has just moved to Japan and is asking Student B for advice about how to make new friends.

Friends can often be more important than family.

Agree :

I agree that friends can often be more important than family because .....

Disagree :

I disagree. I believe family is much more important because .....

- How often do you catch up with friends from your high school or elementary school days?
- Who is an old friend that you haven't seen for a very long time, but would like to see again?
- What is the most memorable experience you've shared with your friends?